The Everglades Foundation
Congressional Educational Briefings and Site Visits
October 10th – 11th, 2019

Overview:

This is an intensive one-day trip to the greater Everglades ecosystem for key congressional staff handling environmental issues affecting this region. Currently, the federal government, working with the State of Florida, is undertaking the world's largest ecosystem restoration project. One of the primary objectives is to benefit federally owned or managed lands, including Everglades National Park, Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge, and the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary. A wide range of federal agencies have jurisdiction over various components of this initiative, including: the Department of Interior, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Fish and Wildlife Service.

The purpose of these briefings and the accompanying site visits to federal lands and waters is to provide an overview of the progress made and the future restoration needs of federal holdings like Everglades National Park and Big Cypress National Preserve.

Confirmed Congressional Staff Participants:

Courtney Fogwell, Legislative Director/Deputy Chief of Staff, Congresswoman Debbie Mucarsel-Powell

Michael Harris, Senior Legislative and Appropriations Assistant, Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz

Kathleen Heffernan, Legislative Assistant, Congressman John Rutherford

Eleni Valanos, Legislative Assistant, Senator Rubio
